Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "gratis" free any more than a merchant can lose credit to the customer. The life of goods or service. A newspaper is a valuable business concern. Its columns are its stock in trade, and advertisements should be paid for, so matter in what part of the paper they appear.

Some More of Our Holiday Gift Bargains.

It is generally customary for clothiers to advertise cut rates on Ulsters and Heavy-weight Overcoats when the weather is warm. That's the time people with not very plethoric pockets do not want them. This is the sort of weather heavy garments are wanted, and several lots we closed out recently enable us to offer them at prices that would almost induce you to buy them in midsummer.

Today we put on sale 132 Black Frieze Ulsters.

cut fifty-four inches long, lined with heavy union casimere, worth and sold every-where for $8.50, $10; our price $6.75.

Today we put on sale a new invoice of English Kersey Overcoats.

lined with triple warp farmer's satin, silk velvet collars, some of them cut in niter lengths, others in the latest topcoat fashion—coats that in our early purchase cost us $8.50 to $10, but in our recent closing out of big lots of clothing enable us to sell them at $7.75. We have a few of the Melton $8 worth $6 Overcoats left. If you find your size you will almost find an Overcoat.

Today we put on sale Lot No. 7284.

(remember the lot number and ask us to show it to you) 47 dark brown plaid imported Cheviot Suits, warranted strictly all WOOL, beautifully made and trimmed, all sizes, sold them early in season for $12.50; our recent purchase lets us give them away at $7.65. The 10 per cent cut on our very best $3.50, $5.00 and $5.00 Shoes, all of them made for us by Smith & Stoughton, affords you the best Footwear in the country at very moderate cost.

DORR'S STREET.

One day through the primal wood, A calf walked home, as good calves should; But made a trail all bent water, A crooked trail, as all calves do.

Since then two hundred years have fled, And, I infer, the calf is dead.

But still he left behind his trail, And thereby hangs a moral tale.

The trail was taken up next day, By a lone dog that passed that way, And then a wise bell-wether sheep

Turned the trail, for rule and stoop, And drew the flock behind him, too.

As good bell-wethers always do, And from that day of old hill and glade, Through those old woods a path was made.

And many men wound in and out, And dodged out turns and bent about, And uttered words of righteous wrath, Because 'twas such a crooked path!

But still they followed—did not budge— The first migration of that calf.

And through this winding wood-way staid because he wobbled when he walked.

The forest path became a lane, Twined bent and turned and turned again.

This crooked lane became a road, Where many a poor horse, with his load, Toiled on beneath the burning sun, And traveled some three miles in one.

And thus a century and a half They trod the footstep of that calf.

The years passed on in a swift stream, The road became a village street.

And this before men were aware, A city's roaded thoroughfare.

And soon the central street was this, Of a renowned metropolis.

And men two centuries and a half, Trod in the footstep of that calf.

Each day a hundred thousand trod Followed the zigzag self about.

And on this crooked journey went, The traffic of a continent.

A hundred thousand men were led, By one calf near three centuries dead.

A Bird-Doit Collector.

A man in Paris finds a profitable business in collecting bad debts by stopping at a debtor's with a wagon around the top of which are these words: "This wagon is taken away by the agent of people who will not pay their debts."

Everybody, and particularly business people, dread the man's wagon so much that they pay promptly.

THE RIGHT WAY.

A "Lodge" Correspondent Suggests a Easy Way Out of a Dilemma.

No diagram is needed for a complete understanding of this:

PETERSBURG, Ky., Dec. 6th, 1907.

Dear Sir:—Why not suggest to the proper authorities that the only way to settle who shall win the Kentucky is through the Civil Service? Surely the Administration did not neglect to provide for that! Very respectfully,

C. O. DUGAN.

Now is the Time!

To select a Christmas, Wedding or Birthday Present. What is the use of putting off until the last moment? You will have a better selection to choose from and you can get waited on better. Nothing is more certain than Christmas will soon be here and you will want to give some gifts to friends and relatives. No one can show you a greater variety of things suitable for gifts than we can, and no one can give you such low prices.

What the Local Association is Doing For the City's Young Men.

Dr. J. C. Molloy, who has just come among us, will be the speaker next Sunday.

The boys' meeting Sunday afternoon was very well attended for the opening service, about twenty boys being present.

Prof. Hayes Thomas led the meeting and presented the story of Sampson in a very unique way, having the boys read the story for themselves and occasionally pressing home a truth which shall count in the days to come.

Miss Minnie Hoer kindly presided at the piano during the service.

The Men's Rally at 3 p. m. was in charge of Prof. W. T. Berry. As announced, the meeting was entirely informal and open to all who elected to take part. Quite a number participated and presented some of the many rich promises which are contained in God's Holy Word.

The promises given were helpful and enabled all to realize more fully than ever before what a great and glorious God our Lord is.

The vocal solo by Mrs. E. B. Daulton was exceptionally appropriate, being sung in a soft pleasing way.

Mrs. Daulton also played the piano during the singing and Mr. Lee B. Gray very ably assisted with the clarinet.

The Will DuBeld passes this city every day at 12 o'clock.

Quite a representative gathering of steamboatmen are in Cincinnati upon today's conference meeting with Supervising Inspector Gen. Dumont, regarding the law requiring steamboat owners to provide suitable sleeping places for their crews.

The four Venetian gondolas which were on exhibition at Nashville are now on their way to the Mississippi. They are fitted for sailing and are in charge of five men and one woman. They made the Cumberland river trip all right. They will be exhibited at Omaha.

There is pool stage at Charleston, with dams up, and New River at Hinton is 24 and rising. The Pittsburgh well is passing Wheeling, while at Pittsburgh there has been a fall of 1 foot. The stage there is 11 feet, 14 at Wheeling, 7.2 at Charleston, 12 feet at Catlettsburg and Port, mouth and 15.3 at Cincinnati, where the fall was 19.

Advices were received from the Kanawha River that a recent coal craft stage had been reached in that stream, and that the steamboats were making every effort to get out as much coal as possible. It was estimated by coal men that if all the coal loaded gets out the shipment will amount to more than 3,000,000 bushels. Four-fifths of this amount is owned by three concerns.

Coal towns from Pittsburgh: Tom Dods worth, 3 boats and 18 barges; Dick Fulton, 4 boats and 18 barges; John Moren, 14 boats and 18 barges; Bob, 10 boats and 8 barges; Coal City, 9 boats and 8 barges, making a total of 44 coal boats and 44 barges. This will be increased, as several large towns have not yet been reported, including the Deader, B. D. Wood, Perry, Kelsey and Mariner. No accidents were reported.

The rise in the Kanawha will allow the immediate resumption of navigation to and from that stream, and Commodore Laidley will not wait until Thursday, the regular day for the Kanawha boat, but will start the Kanawha tonight. Shipping will take notice that freight will be received at once for all points on the Kanawha, but that the Steamer will go out one day ahead of her old time. This arrangement is only for this week, however.
